for the agents of the fractrading companies—practically without white population. The originally united previous comprised an area of upwareds of seven hundred thousand square miles, and a population of about three miltions. The intervening period has not been a long one, as the during the companies of the comp en army from the Atlantie to the Pacific. Its population is about two and a half times that of the uniting provinces. In the great tract, then the home of the Indian and the buffalo, half as many white people now reside as wer-numbered in the first census of the newly formed Dountion, and the newly formed Dountion, and the newly formed Dountion and the property of the newly of the newly of Dounties of States and the con-tent of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the newly of the newly of the newly of the Dounties of the newly of the new

If Dominion Day is worth celebrating anywhere in Canada it is especially worthy of observates in the great Western period whose development has played and is playing, so great a payed and is playing, so great a payed in the making of the nation. In the older provinces the anniversary may serve to bring to memory the happy ending of a long-drawn political fued. In Western Can and the control of without which national organiza-tion this change must have bee hopelessly delayed if not absolute inpeleasly delayed if not absonue, y prevanted,

And certainly no city in the West has better reason to celebrate the day than the city of Edmonton: forly six, years ago a trading post three months; journey beyond the frontier of settlement; today a Pervincial capital and the most modern and progressive city in the most progressive city in the most progressive.

That the results of the local union will be as happy in their kind and degree as those which flowed from the larger event is the hope and faith of the people who have staked their fortunes and devoted their energies to the making of Edmonton.

Proclaiming an Important Semi-Annual Shopping Event-The Best News we Have ever Had to Tell

The Great July Sale Starts Wednesday

Judging this year's big semi-annual event by previous sales of a similar kind only gives a faint idea of what it will have to offer you. When a sale embraces so wide a variety of merchandise and when the remarkable economies affect the most seasonable classes of goods we think there is ample justification for the assertion that it is an event of great shopping importance, and one of more than ordinary interest to the public at large.

The Furniture Store at 11 Jasper Avenue East

Will be strongly in evidence during this sale and a fact worthy of note is that, while quantities and assortments are amply sufficient to sustain keen interest till the very last day, there are many small lots that will last only a very short time and these will be the most coveted of early shopping prizes.

Come at 8.30 Wednesday morning if you expect to secure any of these $1.00 and $2.00 waists that are going for 50e each in the cloak department. Tailored and lingeric waists, in a wide choice of summer styles; also some velvet and marquisctle waists and nice selection ...50c

Commencing Wednesday Morning

The Greatest Economy Event of the Year

Tomorrow morning will witness the beginning of the most important merchandising event ever held in this city. Our present building is now half-hidden by a net-work of scaffolding—workmen are busy removing the falsework roof and are making preparations to add another story. The new addition is progressing rapidly and we are certainly "up against it" for elbow room. And now, right at the very height of these rebuilding operations, comes our semi-annual clearance. We must clear stocks before taking inventory—and we must also reduce stock termendously in order to allow more working space to the contractors. So we have inaugurated an economy sale that will establish a record for wonderful savings a combination of "Rebuilding Sale" and "Semi-Annual Clearance".

-Read the following list of representative values and plan to be here early Wednesday. And don't miss a single one of our advertisements-we're going the limit in price-cutting-its going to be a real "reduce-the-cost-of-living" sale.
